Reports are requested as soon as possible and it is recommended to participate in weekly classes in the office.

Mothers Day Celebration: Some participants brought food dishes to share, sodas, juices, dessert and Jamaica wine. Wisconsin office provided ice cream ,napkins, dishes and glasses.

Gifts : Wisconsin prepared a gift for each mother leader, which was purchased the day before and was packed as a gift, it was really nice and our participants were grateful. Singing presentations were part of this fun activity

Raffles were done based on punctuality and collaboration, the prizes were a bag and two hats, raffles of 2 certificates of Therapies and 1 of Products by Vital Natural Products. Raffle of a fabric clothes sent from Manos Solidarias center from Costa Caribe.

Written evaluations are given individually for each participant to complete and return to use the information in the Monthly report .

Also, they were asked to orally evaluate a few leaders.

Evaluation

We learned how to make cardboard boxes as jewelers or use it as gifts etc., We elaborated boxes with recycled paper paste, cardboard, sandpaper and paint decorated with other materials.

This article is multipurpose, it can be trade and generates income and productive.

This activity collaborates with the environment because garbage is useful in our classes and it helps to motivate young children to use this recycling technique.

It has helped us to meet and share our knowledge.

This is of great value that helps to open our senses and a great help help for us.

WRITING EVALUATION

Why do I take the class today?

As director of the center my desire is to have more tools and knowledge to teach my students to make the most of it. This helps as a motivation

To enrich our knowledge no matter what the content is. They teach us new techniques to be transmitted to others

Crafts are very interesting since you learn to use waste products and it helps to motivate us to recycle and get something useful.

Jewelers are a source of income that helps our students to have more opportunities

I like to get along with all the people who attend the meetings. This also help us to reduce stress

Crafting helps us invent new, creative ideas for some special occasions and save money.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO ATTEND OUR MEETINGS

Because it helps us to be more responsible and assume better learning about collaboration

Helps to feel more motivated and be informed with the projects of the organization

To strengthen our friendships

Review information from centers through reports and know how we are doing

We exchange ideas and learn from women entrepreneurs

Learn from new projects and ideas

Personal integration and professional development

Today I learned!

To make jewelers, decorate boxes decorated with newspaper (such as gift boxes or anything to keep), Paper boxes, Flower, recycling and foamy work.

What other classes are you interested in?

Tape ties, make nail paints to reuse and rework the battered shoes, making handbags and dolls, foamy figures, knitting with two needles, pinching, painting, making vases made of bamboo, sewing (skirts, blouses, cushions, ties), ragdolls, underwear, repair of sewing machines, workshops for potential and development.
