

JANUARY LC Meeting2019

---

Participants in the meeting, 95 people representing 40 Learning Centers.

All leaders shared their experiences of projects in the communities and the activities they carried out for the end of 2018.

Sagrado corazón de Jesús (San Benito) 178 children and adolescents were trained in Crafts, Recycling, Painting, Music and Piñatas, We thank Wisconsin for giving us donations for these trainings.

Casa de la Mujer Ocotal more than 500 women were trained in Beauty and Sewing, we were proud to trained an 8-year-old girl who learned the art of professionally cutting hair with great success.

Iniciativa Colibrí Estelí, we taught children to work with paint and paper recycling, this year we will integrate adults.

Mujeres emprendadoras hacia el Futuro de Estelí. The group of women continue to sew and also participate in the work of the cooperative in the accounts of grains and vegetables.

Renacer Catarina. We worked in baskets and flowers to make arrangements, girls and women were trained in sewing and now they work with much effort supporting each other.

Cedro Galán, We work handbags, ornaments, crafts, for example, wedding reminders and we planned a mini Fair that was a success. We also reactivated the pastry course for the community and that we will continue this year.

Colegio técnico Jesús de Praga. They are working a lot with the children in the Library and they participate in the training of Biointensive with the group of Lilliam Gómez, it has been a success.

Grupo Fanny Center, San Judas, She continues with her group working with recycling that she collects with her group.

Robert Bowen Chilamatillo Center, Crafts is your strongest class and recycling. They are interested in baking.

Hossana Center. They work in communities near their learning center teaching sewing classes. They are promoting the opening of other Centers in the communities that visit where there is poverty.

Cusmapa Center: 35 students in sewing courses. A very enterprising group, will also work with disabled children and their mothers.

Los Ángeles Center (Jinotega) 10 people were trained in high sewing including 1 male, this year is intended to carry out craft workshops.

Centro San Antonio: Carretera vieja León, sewing and tailoring, handbags were made.

Buenos Aires Center: Mayra Assistance of 25 children, they are taught a lot of craft and they are reinforcing reading.

Manos Solidarias, They trained 5 leaders because they have a lot of demand and participation, they got 20 diplomas from the sewing courses, they try to copy the modality of June Lemke to teach monthly courses.

Valle los Aburto, San Gabriel center. We work with crafts, and we worked with 10 women to make centerpieces of tables and floral arrangements for a wedding.

Rosa center and Dulce Porvenir,
They intend to make teaching cooperatives, training to surrounding communities, they work in 15 communities nationwide. They have carpentry, beekeeping, sewing, crafts.

Furia santa Center, work with Niño Jesus de Praga and Rosa Center, it is a center for young men with problems of addiction to drugs and alcohol, they are encouraged to develop skills and put them into practice, this serves as a form of rehabilitation, when they leave the center, they will be able to offer their service and have the possibility of obtaining work or undertaking thanks to the knowledge acquired. They are taught to repair machines, tailoring, chicken breeding, carpentry and farming.

Mujeres Unidas en un Solo Abrazo, they made pastry and decoration crafts, they support low-income women, their pastry training is done in artisanal kitchens.

Centro Madison/Los Cedros, Angélica Pavón . Children are taught to knit and embroider, they have projects for their library where 50 children and youth attend.

Zulema Duarte Acoyapa, They give training about 80 youth in pregnancy prevention and certified 25 women in beauty and pastry courses.

Centro Carolina, They train between 60 and 80 people in crafts, sewing; to work in the maquilas. Courses of maintenance and repair of sewing machines, courses of piano and costume jewelery are taught.

Centro Brazos de Amor, On February 2 starts the classes. They have some kinds of pastries and crafts.

Centro San Vicente, Last year I had 5 people in each imitation jewelery project and pastry.

Centro Un Regalo de Dios, Chinandega, in December they carried out centerpieces and Christmas decorations.

Apan Center Diriamba, drug prevention and pregnancy center, teach English classes, the fort is textile area. They trained 36 people, 35 children were able to prepare.

Sendero de Luz, they teach courses of wool vases and cushions.

Centro Las Lagunas, they attend a library, teach crafts, make quilts and 20 women are trained in cooking.

Center Todo lo Puedo en Cristo, they are teaching how to make wine, they make piñata, with the support of the mayor's office.

Annual Plan for LC Meetings Calendar:

All the participants in the meeting, commit to offer a class in the month that it is up to them according to their knowledge and commitment, a week before they must request the materials for the development of the same or to make changes adequate.

The leaders responsible for centers and other participants complemented the rules and are established for each Learning Center.

Mirna Angulo reads Amy's message and shares the experience of their (Leonor, Mirna and Lilliam) trip to the What Works conference in San Antonio followed by a visit to WI, USA in December. Then she shared about the donation of orange bicycles to LCs.

It is announced that a group of HCE ladies from Washburn County donated the amount of $ 200 with the request that the 2 best projects of the learning centers be awarded with $ 100 each, with a deadline of 12 February 2019.

Certificates of RECOGNITION were given to those Centers in which their leader participated actively in the meetings and complies with the rules. They were given prizes for delivery in time and form; quarterly reports, statistical tables, perseverance and for sharing information on the activities carried out in WNP in social networks.

In the end, pillows were delivered: 4 units for each person in charge and one for each participant in the meeting.

